No.RD 398 LRM 80

Karnataka Gove.
Vidhana Secretariat,
Bangalore, dated. 11-11-1980

CIRCULAR

Sub:- Land Reforms - Failure to follow ru underlined under Rule 17 of Karnataka
Land Reforms Rules - Instructions - Re.

During the course of inspection of the tribunals by the Adviser, Land Reforms, it has come to the notice of Government that the Rules enshrined in Rule 17 of Karnataka Land Reforms Rules 1979 are not being followed by the Tribunals while passing their orders.

The Rule 17 has been amended in the year 1979 vide Notification No.RD 411 LRM 78 dated 24-7-1979 which was circulated to all the Tribunals and the Deputy Commissioners. In spite of it, the Tribunals are not following the instructions issued already. This act of officers is a clear violation of Orders of Government. The disciplinary proceedings will be initiated against the officers who are responsible for gross violation of circular instructions of Government. The Secretaries and Chairmen of the Tribunals are instructed to follow the rules mentioned in Rule 17 of Karnataka Land Reforms Rules 1979 scrupulously.

The Tahsildars/Special Tahsildars/Addl.Spl.Tahsildars are also requested to maintain an Inspection Registers to know the progress of each case posted for spot inspection. They are also requested to maintain a register showing the number of cases remanded to the tribunals by the High Court, how many of them have been decided and the balance. The Deputy Commissioners/Spl.Deputy Commissioners are requested to furnish the statements showing the number of cases remanded to the tribunals by the High Court, the number of cases decided and the balance, to the Government within 10th of every month tribunalwise so as to enable the Government to know the exact position in the matter.
