CIRCULAR

Ref: Circular No. RD 47 MRR 2000 dated 5th October 2001

In the above Circular it was stressed that Bhoomi should not be bypassed while doing mutation. Invariably mutation process should be routed through Bhoomi. In the third last paragraph of the same Circular it was directed that all RR Shirastedar shall call for mutation register and sign in mutation register clearly demarcating mutations done till the date of which RR Shirastedar gets these books. The idea was to ensure that no more future mutations are done by passing Bhoomi.

It has come to the notice of the Government that there is some confusion as to whether mutation registers are to be withdrawn from Village Accountants. It is hereby clarified that no mutation registers should be withdrawn from Village Accountants. Only entry shall be made by RR Shirastedar in mutation register to ensure that all future mutations are carried out on Bhoomi. It was clearly said in the Circular that no future mutations will be carried out by passing Bhoomi as is clear in the body of the Circular.

It is further clarified that mutations will be carried out as per section 129 of Karnataka Land Revenue Act read with Rule 63 and 64 of Karnataka Land Revenue Rules. As per this provision, intimation of mutation shall still go to Village Accountants. The notice for this intimation will be generated on Bhoomi software. Village Accountants shall enter details in the mutation register maintained by him for that village. Mutations, after field enquiry shall still be ordered by Revenue Inspector and recorded in the mutation register in undisputed cases. After the mutation order is passed in mutation register the contents of the same shall be entered into Bhoomi system and shall be scanned there.

It is therefore again clarified that RR Shirastedar will call for mutation register and sign all mutations executed till date. He shall return back the mutation register to Village Accountants and ensure that all the mutations are done using Bhoomi system. It is stressed that RR Shirastedar shall be personally responsible if he incorporates mutation done by any Revenue Inspector, bypassing Bhoomi.
